

CANTEEN IN MAINE CLOSES IN MARCH

Only Federal Barroom in That State Has Its End in Sight.

ORDERS HAVE GONE FORTH

Only Place Where Camp With No Canteen Will Be Located in Prohibition State.

BANGOR, Me., Aug. 6.—After March 1 next the canteen will have to call in its bartenders, pull down the curtains and close the only barroom in Maine.

In the canteen that has gone forth to do away with the canteen at the Soldiers' Home a Tugus, in common with the other nine soldiers' homes in the United States, no officials are likely to be up against some complicated problems in the future management of the institution.

In all the years that the Tugus home has been in existence the canteen has been allowed to run unmolested. The situation is somewhat peculiar at Tugus, for the reason that, unlike the other homes, the soldiers will be thrown into prohibition suddenly.

The 250 soldiers are opposed to the new law, likewise all the officers, including Dr. Henry S. Burrage, the chaplain, a most consistent prohibitionist, as well as every one directly or remotely connected with the home.

Governor Richards does not berate Mrs. M. M. Stevens or her loyal co-workers in the temperance cause, as he believes that they worked conscientiously for that they regarded as a just and worthy cause, but he cannot help thinking that if all the conditions and circumstances surrounding the beer hall where beer only is sold had been known, and to what extent it palliated the greater evil of whisky drinking, it would have been tolerated a while longer.

Governor Richards gives them the great honor of soldiers becomes a prey to the hands of the peddlers just outside the reservation.

The money from the beer hall at Tugus helps pay the expenses of the home. The home, which is a large, well-equipped casino, with pool, billiards and various other games, provides music for the church and hospital, provides the amusement of the grounds, purchases all the fireworks for the Fourth of July, provides for part of the transportation expenses of the soldiers, all the animals for the zoological park, provides crosses and other insignia for the cemetery and furnishes for the home one of the most complete systems of automatic telephones in Maine.

CAMP MEETING STARTED T CONGRESS HEIGHTS

Week of Religious Revival Inaugurated With Interesting Services in Forest Grove—Attendance Large.

The camp meeting was very successful yesterday at Congress Heights. At the 10 o'clock meeting, the Rev. Mr. Irvine gave a very interesting Bible reading of the work of the Holy Spirit in the sanctification of the soul.

The church of the Gentiles, as exemplified in the Congressional church at the house of Cornelius, Acts x. xi, and xv. 8, after which Christian testimonies were given by the audience to the same power of the Spirit in present experience.

At 5 o'clock in the afternoon, the Rev. Dr. Brooks, of Takoma, preached a sermon of great eloquence and spiritual power in the cross as the emblem of salvation from sin, through the atonement of Christ, followed by love to God and man, as exemplified in doing good especially to those who are in need of financial aid in the battle of life, and claiming that the religion of Christ if received and practiced would prove an effective remedy for most of the evils and miseries now suffered by the human family.

Dr. Brooks will preach again at the camp on Tuesday night.

At the evening service the congregation was large and attentive. A number of persons were present from various parts of the city on this side of the Potomac, glad to get out of the heated city into cool air among the trees of the wooded country on the heights.

The service among the tall trees lit by the torchlights was truly grand, and the Rev. Dr. Spencer, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, with his congregation, and was a sermon of great interest and was a sermon of great interest and was a sermon of great interest.

After the sermon the Rev. Mr. Irvine delivered a earnest exhortation in the old-fashioned camp-meeting style, and invited the unconverted to signify their desire for salvation by standing up for prayer. Some ten or twelve quickly responded to that invitation.

The revival work was fairly commenced and is expected to continue all this week and over next Sunday. This is evidently a series of meetings of more than ordinary power and interest and great results are confidently expected by those in charge of the work.

SAW HIS FIRST CHILD FROM A PRISON CELL

BOSTON, Aug. 6.—With a three-week-old son in his arms, Mrs. Thomas Wandless, wife of a Wandless, of New York, is the only woman known in the State prison, arrived in Boston, having come from New York to show the new baby to his father, who is in jail awaiting arraignment on the charge of jail breaking.

Mrs. Wandless was tried and acquitted some months ago on a charge of assisting her husband to escape from jail. She had been living with him at 161 Court street before his arrest, and asked to be married to him in jail. After the ceremony it was thought that she had managed to convey implements whereby he made his escape on the following night.

Wandless was recaptured and sentenced to from four to six years on two charges of burglary. He has not yet been arraigned for jail breaking, and it is supposed that he will be lightly treated for this, as valuable evidence is expected of him.

LORD CURZON, HEARTBROKEN, COMING TO UNITED STATES

Lord Curzon, Former Viceroy of India, Whose Health Is Shattered Since the Death of Lady Curzon.

LONDON, Aug. 6.—Lord Curzon intends to go to America in the coming autumn if the state of his health will warrant it. The shock of his wife's death and other worries, including political troubles, have aggravated his spinal affection, which has always been a source of anxiety.

Accompanied by his brother-in-law, the Earl of Suffolk, he has gone to Tulloch Castle, Fifeshire, to stay. Mrs. Leiter and his children have already been sent north.

The heartbroken man, has not mentioned his wife's name to any of his relatives since her death, and has only replied to letters of sympathy from a few intimate friends in a single patient line of acknowledgment.

EDWARD WILL TAKE ANNUAL WATER CURE

England's Sovereign in Fine Physical Condition—No Necessity for Him to Seek Spa.

LONDON, Aug. 6.—King Edward, who will take his annual "cure" as usual at Marienbad this month, is now in such fine state of health that he really is under no necessity to take it.

On the contrary he tells his friends that he has not felt so fit for years. The London season has left him this year in much better health than last year, when the rest and change on the Continent became imperative.

The full Marienbad regimen, however, will be strictly followed by his majesty. He will rise at half-past 6, and walk to the pump room, where he will take his dose of the waters from a special goblet inscribed with his name. Then he will take an hour's walk, after which he eats a simple breakfast at a little cafe in the pine woods.

The other meals are of the lightest description, no joint appearing in the menu. Dinner usually includes soup, fish and poultry, but sometimes the King will vary the fare with the typically British and unostentatious dish of tripe and onions, after which the King takes a short walk.

One of the rules of the Marienbad cure is "no bridge," the doctors believing its excitement to be too great a tax on the nervous system.

ANGELS, IN VOLAPUK, TO GREET SCHLEYER

Inventor of Universal Language, Who Has Working Knowledge of Eighty-two Tongues, Near Death.

BERLIN, Aug. 6.—Several of his friends have returned from a visit to Johann Martin Schleyer, the enthusiastic inventor of Volapuk, which is to overthrow the babel of languages. Schleyer, a monsignor of the Roman Catholic Church, has just celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday at his dwelling on the shore of Lake Constance.

"I shall soon make my last and longest journey," he said to his visitors. "My reward will be to hear the angels speaking and singing Volapuk."

The monsignor has a working knowledge of eighty-two languages and dialects.

PETITION ASKS TAGGART TO GET OUT OF POLITICS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 6.—A brand-new petition that Tom Taggart resign as Democratic national chairman is being circulated. It will be shown to the chairman as a matter of fact, and it is intended more particularly for William J. Bryan. It sets forth that the State has proved Taggart's ownership and participation in the profits of the gambling joint recently closed at the French Lick Springs hotel and that Taggart is utterly unfit to represent the Democratic party as its chairman.

A Sign OF POOR BLOOD CIRCULATION

Of poor blood circulation is shortness of breath after walking, going up stairs, sweeping, singing, excitement, anger, fright, etc. Poor blood circulation means a sick heart, and a sick heart is a result of weak and impoverished nerves.

Every one knows the results of poor blood circulation, but everybody does not know that the quickest and safest treatment is Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure.

If you find these symptoms present, you should not neglect them, but at once procure a bottle of

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure

It will cure, and at a very little expense, compared with doctor's bills. We are so sure of it, that if first bottle does not benefit, your druggist will return your money. It will do for you what it has done for thousands in like condition.

"For two months I walked on the edge of the tomb from weak heart, poor blood circulation, and nervous prostration. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and Nerve-gave me back my health."

REV. W. A. ROBINS, Port Egin, Ont.

CATHOLIC COLONY NEAR CINCINNATI

Large Tract of Land Bought and Big Cathedral Planned.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 6.—One hundred and sixty acres of land at Norwood Heights will come into the possession of some of the chief members of the Catholic Church in this archdiocese during the week, the purchase price agreed on being $115,000. This large tract will be used for colonization purposes. Hundreds of Catholic families will build homes on it, and eventually have in their midst one of the finest cathedrals in southern Ohio.

Almond, in the shadow of this cathedral, if present plans are carried out, a handsome residence will be built for Archbishop Moeller.

The property extends from Montgomery road on the east to Carthage avenue on the west, about 3,000 feet; from Feldman avenue on the south to about 500 feet beyond Burgoyne road on the north, 2,000 feet approximately. The average cost per acre is $715.

At present there are in the immediate vicinity sixty Catholic families. St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church is two miles away.

While the plans for the cathedral are in an embryonic stage, the church dignitaries propose to reserve sixteen acres of this property for such an edifice and a preparatory seminary. The remaining 144 acres are to be in charge of a syndicate of priests and Catholic laymen, who will proceed immediately with the establishment of a congregation and school building.

The syndicate will hold 150 shares at $1,000 per share, of which the archbishop and the archdiocese will own 100 shares. The property of the shareholders. It is proposed to incorporate the syndicate, of which Archbishop Moeller will be a member. After seventy-five shares have been disposed of at par, it is the intention to sell the remainder at a premium.

TOTAL ABSTINENCE UNION DISCUSSES AMALGAMATION

The Catholic Total Abstinence Union held a "family meeting" last night at Good Hope Hall, 1 street, near Fifteenth street northwest, and discussed the proposed amalgamation of all the temperance societies. Aside from the members of the union who were present, the meeting was attended by delegates from the Rechabites and the Sons of Jonadab. An entertainment had been planned, but owing to the heat the meeting adjourned after the speakers of the evening had delivered addresses.

HANDS RAW WITH TERRIBLE ECZEMA

Suffered for Ten Years—Spreading to Body and Limbs Despite Efforts of Three Doctors—Another Remarkable and Speedy

CURE BY THE CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I had eczema on my hands for ten years. At first it would break out only in winter. Then it finally came to stay. I had three good doctors to do all they could, but none of them did any good. I then used one box of Cuticura Ointment and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent and was completely cured. My hands were raw all over, inside and out, and the eczema was spreading all over my body and limbs. Before I had used one bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, together with the Ointment, my sores were nearly healed over, and by the time I had used the third bottle, I was entirely well. I had a good appetite and was fatter than I ever was. To any one who has any skin or blood disease I would honestly advise them to get the Cuticura Remedies and get well quicker than all the doctors in the State can cure you." Mrs. M. E. Fain, May 19, 1905. Spicers Ferry, Va.

FAY TEMPLETON HIDES WITH NEW HUSBAND

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 6.—W. J. Patterson and his bride, who was Fay Templeton, famous on the comic opera stage, have not yet been heard from, either at the Fort Pitt Hotel, where Mr. Patterson has lived for the past year, or at Springdale, where Mr. Patterson owns a fine old place about half a mile from the village of Springdale, seventeen miles from Allegheny, up the West Penn railroad. The house is a solid, old-fashioned structure of red brick, reached by a long lane. Patterson and his bride, it is said, will live there, although another report is that they will reside in England.

INCH OF PIRATE'S SKIN SOLD FOR FIVE DOLLARS

LONDON, Aug. 6.—The present market value of a pirate king's skin is $5 per square inch.

This was the price given at Stevens' auction rooms, Covent Garden, for a square inch of the outer covering of a Danish rover, whose career was cut short as the result of an act of sacrifice. The same piece of skin was sold in the same auction room eight months ago for "this Danish pirate king," the auctioneer declared, "was flayed alive for an act of sacrifice to his god, Odin, in the year 1000 A.D. After his death strips of his skin were fastened to the door of the church."

ELOPED WITH SISTER-IN-LAW DRESSED AS WOMAN

DES MOINES, Iowa, Aug. 6.—Arthur Munnell, of Ira, attired as a woman, is said to have stolen out of his own home fourteen-year-old Jennie Smith, his wife's sister. He brought her to Des Moines, and they have disappeared to parts unknown.

He dressed in his masquerade in Colfax and drove to his home. The girl got in his buggy and they drove away without rousing his wife's suspicions.

Mrs. Munnell has caused a warrant to be issued for the arrest of her husband on criminal charges, and will have circulars bearing his picture and description scattered all over the country.

ASKS BAIL FOR HEYWARD

The members of organized labor in Washington are deeply interested in the fate of the three members of the Idaho Federation of Labor who are being held for trial in that State without bail.

The matter was discussed at a meeting of the Central Labor Union held yesterday afternoon in Typographical Temple and a grant unanimously adopted calling upon the governor of Idaho to release Heyward, Moyer, and Pettibone, the labor men prisoners, either a speedy trial or to admit them to bail pending their trial.

The meeting was addressed by Terence V. Powderly, James M. Smith, Hugh E. L. Jordan, and Sam De Neddy.

Heyward, Moyer, and Pettibone are accused of conspiracy in connection with the assassination of ex-Governor Steunenberg, of Idaho.

Heyward has been nominated by organized labor as their candidate for governor of Colorado.

SUCCESS BY GRAFT CARRIES RESPECT

Rabbi Browne Roundly Denounces the Immunity Won by Rich Rascals.

NEW YORK, August 6.—Rabbi Browne who is soon to have a new synagogue in Harlem, preached yesterday in Rabbi Distillator's synagogue, 174 Lexington avenue. His subject was the destruction of Jerusalem. He told of the power of wealth in those days, and then declared that in America, at the present time, the Government, society, and the churches, with but few exceptions, are based on graft and greed.

"The rich man is beyond criticism," he said. "A Corey may divorce his noble wife, but society does not ostracize him. A White may debauch innocent children for years, yet his death is bewailed by society's sentimentalists. A Depeu may draw undeserved thousands from the Equitable, but our Senators think his place is not dishonored. Every department in Washington so far investigated shows corruption and rascality, from the Postoffice rings to the cotton report sales and the beef packers' scandal. If that spirit of worshiping a man simply because he has millions enters the hearts of the rising generation our country is doomed."

The rabbi said a man could make millions honestly, and cited the case of Russell Sage, who, "although he was too stingy to buy friends, never had an unkind word said of him."

"Don't worship money," he concluded. "Don't worship a man because he has money, and don't believe wealth is the only thing that brings happiness. We cannot worship God and gold at the same time."

TRAMP DOGS SOLD AT JOLLY AUCTION

Canine Convicts Escape Death, and Each Now Wears a Legal Tag.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 6.—Some time ago the people of McKeesport decided that there were too many dogs running loose, so they started a wagon around and gathered up homeless dogs, and many that were not homeless.

The authorities decided to drown them in the river, but Health Officer Frank W. Hooper objected and said he would dispose of the dogs. He advertised a public sale of dogs.

In the morning, when the sale started, Hooper had on hand 122 dogs—good dogs, handsome dogs, many dogs, and of many breeds.

Several hundred persons attended the sale the first day. The bidding was spirited, and seventy-five of the animals were disposed of. No dog was sold under $1, and the first dollar that was bid on a dog went toward paying for a license for him. In that way each dog was sure of protection for the remainder of the year. There were some really good dogs in the bunch, and some of them brought as high as $25. After the licenses had been obtained, the remainder of the money was turned into the city treasury.

All the dogs were disposed of on the second day of the sale.
